

Great sandwiches and wraps don't happen by accident; It's a scientific complexity that borders on art. You've got to balance moistness, texture crunch and the weight of the main components and toppings. You then have to choose the bread that will make each element shine, and construct them so that every bite yields the experience that's worthy of royalty. There is also a misconception that a sandwich or a wrap is a snack, this is not true. Once that balance and moistness, crunch and component are achieved then this will stand toe to toe with any meal out there. The author has spent a lot of time perfecting these recipes so you can just get on and enjoy. We have kept the recipes simple yet they are build yield the maximum taste and satisfaction.
