Nelson "The innocence of penciller Joe Ollmann's award-winning art style, all wiggly lines and big-headed people, is akin to a gifted eight-year-old discovering the papers of Harker, Van Helsing, et al., and trying to convey the terrifying images they created in his mind. The result is a fresh version that reminds readers why Stoker's creation deserves his immortality, while it also lets our imaginations act as the story's lifeblood." Eric Grant, Rue Morgue Magazine
