

How to Write Fiction that Doesn't Suck is simply Desiree talking to the reader about writing fiction. After gaining experience through editing fiction for others and writing it herself, Desiree wanted to take those thoughts and put them all in one place for everyone to have continual access to them. This is me taking my mistakes, my loves, my wins, my experiential editing and critiquing, my conceptualizing, and whatever else I believe will be beneficial to you and compiling it all in one place so you can be better at what you love to do which, I hope, is writing! ~Desiree M. Mondesir This book is not about punctuation, grammar, or syntax. It's about the author's mindset and preparation that goes into writing the actual book. If you're in need of random, creative inspiration as well as motivation to begin and continue writing fiction, then this book is for you.
