

Continuing the saga of good vs. evil started in The Dying of the Day! After the tragedy in Zedren, Braden finds himself a captive of the paladin, Jarid. Brynn wakes to find Zedren destroyed and the shadow of a horrible experience in her soul. Can the twins find each other before there is no turning back? Gods of Sun, Earth, and Moon. When tragedy strikes the village of Zedren, twins Braden and Brynn, the children of a once-powerful man, will live separate lives. As Braden is treated as family among strangers, Brynn is treated as a stranger among the people she has known all her life. As the twins fight their own personal struggles, the servants of a banished god rise from the darkness to reawaken the power they once served. To do so, they seek to use the power of the God of Light to destroy the seals on the prison of the God of Night. Soon, only the bonds of blood will stand in the war of Light and Dark. But is blood strong enough to survive The Gods of Sun, Earth, and Moon?
