

It [knowing Jesus] will never be enough until my faith becomes sight and I know him as fully as I am known. I find that my yearning for Him is ravenous and it has once again led me to immerse myself in the pages of His Word-in particular, the eyewitness account of His life and ministry that was recorded by the disciple with whom I most identify-John. -Anne Graham Lotz Long heralded by Billy Graham as the best preacher in the family, Anne Graham Lotz draws new insights from passages containing Jesus teachings to his disciples toward the end of his earthly ministry when the disciples were trying to cling to Him most. Anne writes, I wanted to know what He had to say to those who were desperate for more of Him. Anne focuses each chapter on a passage from the last half of the book of John and features a corresponding life application. Chapter titles will includeâ€” His Voice in My Ears, His Tears on My Face, His Praise on My Lips, His Death in My Life, His Dirt on My Hands, His Hope in My Grief, His Fruit in My Service, His Love in My Home, His Courage in My Convictions, His Nearness in My Loneliness, His Answers to My Prayers, and His Glory on My Knees.
