

The stories in Some People You Will Always Love are simple, true stories of the day-to-day that will return you to the enchantment of your own life and your own stories. Some of the stories in the book tell how the author found her voice and her stories, giving you inspiration and clues for finding yours. Some of the stories observe little miracles and meanderings in the lives of others; they remind you to notice the stories all around you. They, too, are the stories of your life. This book makes celebrating your life through story an accessible, exciting process. The simple but powerful exercises at the end of each chapter will help you to find the stories that satisfy your soul. You will put the book down knowing that you, too, are a storyteller.
